DETAILED ACTION

Acknowledge of the receipt of "applicant argument/remarks" filed on 05/28/2004.

Claims 1-30 have been cancelled, 31-63 have been added as new claims, and claims 31-63 are pending in application.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-16, and 18-34, drawn to a method of chemical reduction of metallic oxides to form pellets of metallic oxide and particulate carbon.

Group II, claim(s) 17, drawn to a product of directly reduced granular iron pellet.

Group III, claim(s) 35-39, drawn to apparatus of an electrothermal fluidized bed furnace.

The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: they lack the same of unity a posteriori because the common feature of "reduced iron pellet" is known in the art. Iacottiet al (US 4178170, thereafter '170) discloses reduced granular iron pellet

(Col.2, Lines 30-60). Invention I-II lacks the same or corresponding special technical feature. Therefore unity of invention is lacking and restriction is appropriate.

The inventions listed as Groups I and III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: they lack the same of unity a priori because the lack common feature. Invention I-III lacks the same or corresponding special technical feature. Therefore unity of invention is lacking and restriction is appropriate.

The inventions listed as Groups II and III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: they lack the same of unity a priori because the lack common technical feature. Invention II-III lacks the same or corresponding special technical feature. Therefore unity of invention is lacking and restriction is appropriate.

A telephone call was made to Mr. Stephen B. Heller on Aug. 17, 2007 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Jie Yang whose telephone number is 571-2701884. The examiner can normally be reached on IFP.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Roy King can be reached on 571-2721244. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
